

Pride exalts one`s self,
Love lifts up another.
Love requires a pure heart;
a pure heart requires a pure conscience;
a pure conscience requires righteousness,
righteousness requires wisdom;
wisdom requires knowledge, Knowledge requires instruction,
instruction requires a source;
a source requires research;
research requires desire;
desire requires a heart.
It`s all about the heart.

Life is full of heartache, because of a lack of love in our hearts. The lust of our flesh is never satisfied, our eyes stray and effect our hearts. The pride of life brings our covetous heart into bondage of materialism. A cruel person is called heartless! Just look at the history of dictators, there is much to be learned there about man`s heart. Salvation comes through believing the gospel in our hearts, read Romans 10 v 9-10. If only Calvinists could understand the difference between head knowledge and heart knowledge and come to truly understand Paul`s gospel of grace. Why is it thousands flock to so called mega churches and listen to prosperity preachers? It`s all comes down to the heart being in the wrong place. Getting our heart right is so important! Finally brethren be humble, be loving, freely you received freely give.
