

Fare ye well, fare ye well,
oh pilgrim soldier.
Fare ye well, fare ye well,
my valiant friend!
Girt up loins like a man,
doing all that you can;
with the armour of our God,
therefore, taking a stand!

Fare ye well, fare ye well,
oh pilgrim soldier.
Fare ye well, fare ye well,
my valiant friend!
Not dismayed by what's ahead,
bringing life to the dead,
may your love endure,
staying faithful to the end!

Fare ye well, fare ye well,
oh pilgrim soldier.
Fare ye well, fare ye well,
my valiant friend!
With the King James bible in one hand,
and Christian battle notes in the other.
marching on as to war,
enduring hardness as a soldier!

Fare ye well, fare ye well,
oh pilgrim soldier.
Fare ye well, fare ye well,
my valiant friend!
Thou we fight with evil
powers and principalities, we will not be the casualties.
We will labour day and night, because the Lord has taught us what is right!
