

Review – Just One Bible

Introduction

This work reviews the book Can You Trust Just One Bible? by David W. Daniels and Jack McElroy, referred to as the authors, paperback 160 pages.

See www.chick.com/catalog/books/0259.asp. The site states that In early 2015, authors Jack McElroy and David W. Daniels felt a burden to help other Christians whose faith was being challenged. They recorded two unrehearsed interviews where they answered many anti-KJV accusations to show you why you CAN trust just one Bible - The King James Version.

This writer's view is that the authors have achieved their objective as set out above. A review follows. This writer has attached several helps that are explained under Chapter 5, Geneva-AV1611 Agreement and Disagreement.

Overall Impression

The book is written in an informal, easy-to-read style as a question-and-answer dialogue between the authors with major comments highlighted. The book thereby holds the reader's attention throughout. The book is well-referenced with copious endnotes and an index. It is an excellent primer for the student new to the AV1611 versus the modern versions but also an admirable summary for anyone already familiar with that subject.

Chapter 1, "One law and one manner..." Numbers 15:16

The authors wisely set out the AV1611 as the standard for "the words of God" Numbers 24:4, 16, 1 Chronicles 25:5, Psalm 107:11, John 3:34, Revelation 17:17. The reader is left in no doubt that the 1611 Holy Bible is "the book of the LORD" Isaiah 34:16 "the scripture of truth" Daniel 10:21 "the royal law" James 2:8 and "All scripture" that "is given by inspiration of God" 2 Timothy 3:16 and no other book is

Chapter 2, King James 1st

The authors deal comprehensively with the accusations against King James 1st citing the definitive work on the subject King James Unjustly Accused? by Stephen A. Coston. The authors have ensured that for King James 1st as for believing Israel "thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee" Deuteronomy 33:29.

Chapter 3, The Scriptures Pre-1611

The authors show that the AV1611 was being assembled pre-1611 and list the Bibles of the 16th century e.g. Tyndale, Coverdale, Matthew, Great, Taverner, Geneva, Bishops' in Chapter 5 as faithful precursors to the AV1611. The authors note the Lord's vindication of the AV1611 stemming from its pre-1611 precursors by means of 400 years of outstanding revival, soul-winning and church-planting. The modern versions, by contrast, have produced no such comparable results and like the RV Revised Version of 1881 tend to come and go whereas the 1611 Holy Bible remains steadfast according to the Lord's promise stated three times in scripture Matthew 24:35, Mark 13:31, Luke 21:33 "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

Chapter 4, Salvation via Modern Versions e.g. the NIV

The authors readily acknowledge that an individual can get saved by reading a modern version e.g. the NIV. However they are careful to warn that the multitude of words that have been cut from modern versions prevents the new believer from being "nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine" 1 Timothy 4:6.

Chapter 5, Geneva-AV1611 Agreement and Disagreement

Chapter 5 of Can You Trust Just One Bible? has been this writer's main focus for this review for reasons that follow.

The authors commendably highlight the shortcomings of the Geneva Bible with respect to the 1611 Holy Bible, Chapter 5 The Geneva Bible – What's Wrong With It? though they do state that the Geneva Bible was a faithful precursor to the 1611 Holy Bible and very close to it. See remarks on Chapter 3. They then cite as among the shortcomings of the Geneva Bible the following scriptures listed in order as cited where the Geneva Bible is in error and corrected by the 1611 Holy Bible, Matthew 3:8, 11, 4:17, Mark 1:4, 6:12, Luke 3:8, 13:3, 5, 15:7, 16:30, Acts 2:38, 3:19, 26:20, Revelation 3:19, Hebrews 10:12, Malachi 2:16, Matthew 2:23, Zechariah 9:9, 1 Peter 1:25, Genesis 24:22, Leviticus 21:17, Psalm 22:7, Proverbs 6:6, 30:25, Isaiah 3:20, 23, 11:1, 28 scriptures. The authors state that those 28 scriptures are but "a tiny selection" of the errors in the Geneva Bible.

It would therefore be helpful for the authors to provide a full collation of those errors and the corresponding AV1611 corrections to set against their statement that the Geneva Bible was a faithful precursor to the 1611 Holy Bible and very close to it. Otherwise the implication that the Geneva Bible is replete with errors may prompt Bible critics to insist yet again that only by resorting to 'the Hebrew and the Greek' so-called can anyone know what God 'really' said, the authors' response to 'the Hebrew and the Greek' Chapters 11, 17 notwithstanding. The critics would further insist that though the King James translators caught the errors in the Geneva Bible, only 'the Hebrew and the Greek' can pass right judgement on the accuracy or otherwise of King James readings.

This writer has therefore inserted the following helps as a first step in countering the critics.

Bible Believers Basics

This is a listing of basic online and hard copy helps that will provide the reader with further information on the topics addressed in the book Can You Trust Just One Bible?

Table Refinements of English Bibles, Geneva-Bishops'-1611 Holy Bible

This table lists the 28 verses given above as errors in the Geneva Bible in order as cited in Chapter 5 The Geneva Bible – What's Wrong With It? and compares the readings of the Geneva Bible with the corresponding readings of the Bishops' Bible and the AV1611. The table includes in blue text additional scriptures from Will Kinney's article brandplucked.webs.com/deficientgeneva.htm The Deficiencies of the Geneva Bible listed in order as cited in the article.

The table shows that the deficiencies of the Geneva Bible were being corrected in the 16th century by means of the Bishops' Bible. The table shows that the Bishops' Bible had corrected 19 of the 28 verses listed above. Of the 79 verses in total that the table lists from Chapter 5 The Geneva Bible – What's Wrong With It? and Will Kinney's article, the table shows that 38 verses or almost half had been at least partly corrected by means of the Bishops' Bible. Will Kinney's article shows that corrections to Geneva New Testament readings that the Bishops' Bible contains are also found in pre-Geneva and pre-Bishops' 16th century Bibles e.g. Tyndale, Coverdale.

Table 1611 AV1611 Pre-1611 Bible Version Comparison, Selected Verses
Table 5 Revelation 22, Comparison of the 1611 AV1611, Geneva, Tyndale, DR

From www.timefortruth.co.uk/why-av-only/ 'O Biblios' – The Book pp 191-201

These tables show that, differences in wording notwithstanding, the Geneva Bible is very close to the 1611 Holy Bible.

The first comparison is with respect to Matthew 21:16, 24:40, 26:30, Luke 9:31, Acts 15:24, 34, Romans 1:1, 2:5, 5:8, 1 Corinthians 15:33, 2 Corinthians 10:10, Philippians 1:21, 1 Timothy 1:15, 2 Timothy 1:3, Hebrews 10:25, 12:23, James 1:5, 1 John 1:9, 2:2, 20, 3:21, 21 verses. By inspection, the agreement between the Geneva Bible and the 1611 Holy Bible is very good. If differences in wording only are considered, the Geneva Text is 76% that of the AV1611. If consistency of meaning is taken into account the agreement increases effectively to 100%.

The Revelation 22 comparison, likewise of 21 verses, shows that the Geneva Text is 97% that of the 1611 Holy Bible with respect to wording.

Note in passing that the above tables were compiled with a view to countering the charge that the King James translators were heavily influenced by the Douay-Rheims version. See the following extract from 'O Biblios' – The Book' p 191 which answers that charge and sets out the structure of the above tables. The notes following the table are therefore slanted to provide further answers to that charge but nevertheless summarise the data showing the extent of agreement between the Geneva and AV1611 Texts.

11.4 “The Considerable Influence of the Rheims NT”

Our critic then turns his attention to the alleged influence of the Douay-Rheims version on the AV1611, which Alfred Pollard mentions in his very informative Biographical Introduction to the 1611 AV1611, pp 27-28, of the Oxford Reprint. I will now compare the readings of the 1611 AV1611 with those of the Geneva Bible, 1599, Tyndale's New Testament, 1526 and the DR for the verses cited by our critic, where the influence of the DR “is reflected in many of the KJV's phrases and terms.”

The present day edition of the DR, first published in 1899, contains Challoner's revisions which have made it conform more closely with the AV1611 than the original 1582 Edition<sup>*2012</sup>. I have compared the three versions as follows.

<sup>*2012</sup>See remarks in Section 11.1 with respect to the 1582 JR New Testament used for Table 1 and the Douay-Rheims Challoner Revision (1749-1752). The Douay-Rheims Challoner Revision (1749-1752) has been retained for the comparison that follows.

The number of differences with respect to the 1611 AV1611 is equal to:

number of words changed + number of words added + number of words removed + number of changes of word order.

The number of differences appears after each verse quoted and the total at the end of the comparison.

See In Awe of Thy Word by Gail Riplinger, Chapters 3, 18, 20 with respect to key scriptures and Bible words versus post-1611 counterfeits, see table below, that yet again show the close agreement between the Geneva, Bishops' and AV1611 Texts. The verses are listed in order as encountered; Luke 4:4, John 10:21, Luke 2:40, John 10:32, 9:35, 6:69, Luke 9:35, Matthew 8:29, Mark 9:42, John 6:47, Mark 10:24, John 9:4, Luke 9:55, 56, John 16:16, Mark 15:28, John 17:11, Mark 9:44, 46, 29, 7:16, Matthew 6:33, Mark 12:32, Matthew 19:17, John 1:14, 18, Matthew 1:25, 18:11, 4:18, 12:25, Luke 11:54, Matthew 17:21, Luke 11:2, 4, 2 Thessalonians 1:2, Mark 13:33, John 5:4, Luke 23:17, 22:64, 68, 23:42, 24:36, 51, 52, John 3:13, Matthew 12:31, Luke 17:36, 47 verses in all. The agreement between the Geneva, Bishops' and AV1611 Texts with respect to both wording and consistency of meaning for those verses is effectively 100%.

Table Occurrences of Key Words, Geneva, Bishops' Bibles*, AV1611 versus Post-1611 Counterfeits

*less Apocrypha, **Old Testament only

Word	Geneva	Bishops'	AV1611	Post-1611 Counterfeits
deuil(s), deuy(s), devil(s)	118	114	117	demon(s)
dragon(s)	23	22	22	jackal(s)
heauen(s), heaven(s)	750	689	739	sky, skies
hell	36	59	54	sheol, hades
world(e)	357	395	290	age, ages

Though the matches are not precise, the Geneva, Bishops' and AV1611 Texts consistently retain Bible words that the post-1611 versions at least partially deny or weaken.

English Reformation to Last Days Apostasy – To and From the AV1611

This summary study initially with respect to 37 key passages of scripture and subsequently extended to 262 verses shows again that the Geneva, Bishops' and AV1611 Texts are very close, in approximately 90% agreement with respect to the scriptures considered.

Purification of “The words of the LORD” Psalm 12:6, 7 – Summary

“The words of the LORD...purified seven times” Psalm 12:6

These studies provide a historical overview of how God was at work purifying His scriptures over the centuries from the ancient Biblical languages to the finally perfected AV1611 extant now. The studies show that the Geneva Bible was an essential step in that purification process.

It is hoped that the reader will benefit from the above helps with respect to viewing the Geneva Bible in correct perspective. See following Conclusion for the above helps in detail.

“But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work” John 5:17.

This review now continues leading to this writer's Conclusion after which the helps listed above have been inserted in turn.

Chapter 6, King James Onlyism versus Scholarship Onlyism

See remarks under Chapter 1. The authors show that it is not un scholarly to have one standard of scripture i.e. to be King James Only but rather it is in effect scriptural for all believers. “One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you” Numbers 15:16.

Chapter 7, Bible Belief and Church Splits

See remarks under Chapters 1, 6. The authors rightly point out that having one standard of scripture i.e. the King James Bible does not split a church. The church splitters are those with multiple authorities with no King in the pulpit other than personal opinion as happened in effect in ancient Israel. “In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes” Judges 21:45.

Chapter 8, The KJV versus the NKJV

“Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices” 2 Corinthians 2:11 the authors show that the NKJV is a Catholic satanic counterfeit like all modern versions.

Chapter 9, The KJV's Less-Familiar Words

The authors draw attention to the help King James Bible Companion that gives the meanings of the approximately 600 unfamiliar words in the 1611 Holy Bible. They thereby follow the principle that they cite of Nehemiah 8:8 “So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.”

Chapter 10, Integrity of Doctrine

The authors rightly warn that in line with Watchtower heresies the modern versions attack the integrity of doctrine by altering 1 Timothy 3:16 “God was manifest in the flesh” to cut out the strongest Biblical testimony to the Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ and by cutting out 1 John 5:7 “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one” to eliminate the premier Biblical witness to the three Persons of the Godhead.

Thankfully concerning the attackers “Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was” 2 Timothy 3:8-9.

Chapter 11, Greekiolators

See remarks under Chapters 1, 6, 7. The authors warn of another instance of “In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes” Judges 21:45 this time by means of ‘the Greek’ undefined but which may simply be a sly substitution of a modern English version for the AV1611 under the guise of supposedly directly interpreting ‘the Greek.’

Chapter 12, God’s Word in English

A one-language Bible with correct renderings from the ancient languages of both testaments is essential for ease of cross-referencing between the testaments as Paul makes clear. “Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual” 1 Corinthians 2:13.

Chapter 13 (!), Doubt, the Devil’s Device

The authors warn of the satanic tactic of sowing doubt according to Genesis 3:1 “Yea, hath God said...?” by means of corrupting Bible texts and draw attention to the corresponding warning from scripture, changed in the modern versions. “For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ” 2 Corinthians 2:17.

Chapter 14, The KJV versus the NKJV #2

This chapter is a helpful reminder on the NKJV, see remarks under Chapter 8, of 2 Corinthians 2:11 “Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.”

Chapter 15, The KJV’s Less-Familiar Words #2

This chapter is a helpful reminder, see remarks under Chapter 9, of how to address the AV1611’s less-familiar words and cites the comprehensive help Archaic Words and the Authorized Version by Dr Laurence Vance. The authors state quite reasonably that unfamiliar words must be learned for any subject and Bible study is no different. The Bible student has an expert Teacher. “But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you” John 14:26.

Chapter 16, KJV Only ‘Crazies’

See remarks under Chapters 1, 6. The authors show that to have one standard for scripture is not insane but sound scriptural sense “and dissolving of doubts” Daniel 5:12 according to Numbers 15:16 “One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you” and 2 Timothy 1:7 “For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.”

Chapter 17, Subverting Faith by Sowing Doubt

See remarks under Chapters 1, 6, 7, 11, 13. The authors warn again of the satanic tactic of sowing doubt according to Genesis 3:1 “Yea, hath God said...?” by means of corrupting Bible texts, this time as it is done in so-called Bible colleges via appealing to anti-King James authorities under the heading of Textual Criticism, which again is largely personal opinion. The Bible student should remember Proverbs 28:26 “He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.”

Chapter 18, Sound Scripture versus Subversive Scholars

See remarks under Chapters 1, 6, 7, 11, 13, 17. The authors warn against the subversion of Bible belief according to ‘originals-onlyism’ whereby only the non-extant and never-extant ‘original languages bible’ is said to be the perfect word of God that scholars so-called arrive at again largely by personal opinion. The Bible student should remember 2 Timothy 2:14 “Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.”

Chapter 19, Anti-Biblical Arch Traitors

This chapter exposes the arch traitors Westcott and Hort, who attacked the AV1611 with a satanic Catholic text the RV Revised Version, the basis for modern versions. They each violated Proverbs 20:3 “It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.”

Chapter 20, Making a Liar out of God

The authors reveal how the latest modern versions make a liar out of God by cutting “yet” from John 7:8. This is where Bible corruption ends, incurring the condemnation of Proverbs 1:25 “But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof.”

Chapters 21, 22, Authors’ Conclusions

This writer’s Conclusion summarises the authors’ conclusions. “...a threefold cord is not quickly broken” Ecclesiastes 4:12.

Conclusion

Fundamentalist preachers habitually refer to the book in front of them as ‘the word of God’ while denying that any extant Bible version is really ‘the word of God’ because, they insist, only ‘the original is perfect.’ They will therefore typically depart from the book in front of them by reference to ‘other versions and other translations’ as though “the words of God” Numbers 24:4, 16, 1 Chronicles 25:5, Psalm 107:11, John 3:34, Revelation 17:17 are some kind of movable feast. In sum they become like apostate Israel in the time of the judges and fall into line lockstep with their mentor.

“In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes” Judges 21:45.

“I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High” Isaiah 14:14.

By contrast, this writer’s conclusion is that if the book in front of the preacher is the 1611 Holy Bible finally perfected then that Book is right and all departures from it however concocted including via the preacher’s own opinion are wrong. No ‘other versions and other translations’ exist.

The need for some clarification on the Geneva Bible’s agreement/disagreement with the AV1611 notwithstanding, the book Can You Trust Just One Bible? by David W. Daniels and Jack McElroy faithfully supports that conclusion, namely as indicated earlier that the 1611 Holy Bible is “the book of the LORD” Isaiah 34:16 “the scripture of truth” Daniel 10:21 “the royal law” James 2:8 and “All scripture” that “is given by inspiration of God” 2 Timothy 3:16 and no other book is.

Bible Believers Basics

Introduction

These basics have been written for the Bible believer who aims to get a good overview of final authority that is and always will be the 1611 Holy Bible “the book of the LORD” Isaiah 34:16 “the scripture of truth” Daniel 10:21 “the royal law” James 2:8 and “All scripture” that “is given by inspiration of God” 2 Timothy 3:16 in the certain belief that no other book is.

These basics show the Bible believer that the 1611 Holy Bible is in fact the final authority as stated and that all other bibles are Catholic satanic counterfeits. The site www.timefortruth.co.uk/why-av-only/ has links to the following basic sources that will enable the Bible believer to understand that the 1611 Holy Bible is the final authority according to “the Spirit of truth” John 16:33 and that its critics are of “...a spirit of an unclean devil” Luke 4:33. The list over-page gives additional material for further study. The basic sources are these, with accompanying summary explanations:

Summary Table for 1611 AV1611 Pre-1611 Bible Version Comparison, Selected Verses

Total differences in Geneva	99
Total differences in Geneva if Acts 15:34 is included in the comparison	103
Total differences in Tyndale, with or without Acts 15:34	146
Total differences in DR	102
Total differences in DR if Acts 15:34 is included in the comparison	114

Apart from changes in spelling, punctuation and italics, NONE OF WHICH affects meaning, the total number of differences in the above verses, including Acts 15:34, between the 1611 AV1611 and the 2001/2012 AV1611 is zero.

The above 21 verses, including Acts 15:34 contain 426 words.

When one selects a passage of scripture of comparable length but from one Book only, such as Revelation 22, the following results are obtained, with the same definition of differences as above. See Table 5.

Total number of words	574
Total differences in Geneva	46
Total differences in Tyndale	77
Total differences in DR	110
Total differences in wording in 1611 and 2001/2012 AV1611s	0

If word changes only are considered, the number of differences between Geneva, Tyndale and the AV1611 are only 25 and 38 respectively [The Newe Testament by William Tyndale (1526) John Wesley Sawyer, The Martyrs Bible Series Volume 1, 1989] Preface p 3. My figures are 22 and 37 respectively. See table that follows for the verse listings in Revelation 22.

2016 Note: Sawyer's figures for Revelation 22 show that the wording of the Bishops' and Geneva Bibles are 96% and 97% that of the 1611 Holy Bible respectively.

When one combines the two sets of figures for the maximum number of differences from the AV1611, a figure of 149 is found for the Geneva, i.e. 103 + 46, 223 for Tyndale and 224 for the Douay-Rheims. When one allows for the alterations made in the Douay-Rheims to conform it to the AV1611, there is no compelling reason to suppose that the AV1611 translators were especially influenced by the Douay-Rheims.

Notes:

2016 update: Rows in blue are from What is the Bible? – AV1611 Overview Table 1, 262 verses

1. The table lists 37 passages of scripture that James White designates as “problems in the KJV,” The King James Only Controversy pp 223ff.
2. James White insists that the modern versions, NIV, NASV, NKJV, largely correct these “problems” and that these 37 passages are typical of modern ‘improvements’ over the AV1611. This writer’s review of White’s book shows that they are not. See www.timefortruth.co.uk/why-av-only/james-white-dr-divietro-and-dawaite.php KJO Review Full Text.
3. These 37 passages have therefore been used for comparison with the AV1611 for pre-1611 and post-1611 bibles to show that White’s ‘improvements’ are apostasy.
4. The table lists the results for comparison of these 37 passages with the AV1611 for 17 bibles in total. Readings are omitted but may be checked via the sources listed.
5. A clear cell denotes agreement between the specified bible and the AV1611 with respect to the sense of the reading, although the wording may differ.
6. A shaded cell denotes departure of a bible from the AV1611. Marked cells denote:
2013 – the 2013 NWT departs from the AV1611, the 1984 NWT does not.
CR - the Challoner’s Revision departs from the AV1611, the 1610 DR does not.
DR - the 1610 DR departs from the AV1611, the Challoner’s Revision does not.
f.n. – the NKJV f.n. footnote departs from the AV1611, the NKJV text does not.
NJB - the NJB departs from the AV1611, the JB does not.
7. 5 pre-1611 bibles have been used with the 1611 and current i.e. 2011+ AV1611s; WY, Wycliffe, TY/C, Tyndale/Coverdale in the Old Testament, BIS, Bishops’, GEN, Geneva. No changes exist for the 37 passages for the 1611, 2011+ AV1611 Texts.
Sources for WY, TY/C, BIS, GEN, 1611, 2011+ AV1611s are www.e-sword.net/index.html, www.studylight.org/.
8. 12 post-1611 bibles have been used; DR/CR, Douay-Rheims 1610 and Challoner’s Revision 1749-1752, RV, Revised Version, JB/N, Jerusalem and New Jerusalem Bibles, NWT, 1984, 2013 New World Translations, NASV, 1977, 1995 New American Standard Versions, NIV, 1984, 2011 New International Versions, NKJ, New King James Version. No changes exist for the 37 passages for the 1977, 1995 NASVs, 1984, 2011 NIVs. Sources for the DR/CR, RV, NIVs, NASVs, NKJV, NWTs, JB, NJB are:

Printed edition and www.unz.org/Pub/Bible-1966 JB, www.catholic.org/bible/ NJB
9. The table shows that divergence of the pre-1611 bibles from the AV1611 Text for the 37 passages decreases markedly as successive translations appear. The corresponding increasing convergence of the pre-1611 bibles with the AV1611 parallels the advance of the English Reformation from its inception in the 14th century to its maturity in the 16th century, followed by its crowning achievement early in the 17th century - the AV1611 Holy Bible.
10. The table shows further that the post-1611 bibles not only diverge increasingly from the AV1611 Text, with Rome and Watchtower but the ‘fundamentalist’ versions, NIV, NASV, diverge from the AV1611 even more than today’s Papist and JW versions, changing well over 90% of the test passages. Even the ‘conservative’ NKJV is the same, with over 85% departures, typical for AV1611 versus NKJV comparisons if NKJV f.n.s. are included – 30%+ is typical for NKJV text-only departures from the AV1611, considerably less but still appreciable. In sum, the accelerating departure of the post-1611 bibles from the AV1611 corresponds to the deepening apostasy of the church in these last days. All modern bibles are germane to this apostasy.

Purification of “The words of the LORD” Psalm 12:6, 7 – Summary

Introduction

Philippians 2:16 states “Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.” Inspiration must be inviolate throughout the purification process of “the word of life” otherwise it is no longer “the word of life” and Paul and the other writers of scriptures would have run and laboured in vain. However, they did not, because “the word of the Lord endureth for ever” 1 Peter 1:25. An overview of God’s seven-stage purification process of “the word of life” follows, noting the seven-stage purification sub-processes embedded in the overall purification process.

A Seven-Stage Purification Process – Historic Bibles

Dr Vance [Bible Believers Bulletin, February 2003, June 2006] shows that Psalm 12:6, 7 was fulfilled in history largely with inspired translations Genesis 2:7, 2 Samuel 3:10, Ezekiel 37:9-11, Matthew 24:35, John 6:63, Colossians 1:13, Hebrews 11:5, 1 Peter 1:23, 25:

- A received Hebrew text, 1800 BC to 389 BC
- A received Aramaic text at the same time (Genesis, Daniel, etc.)
- A received Greek text from AD 40 to AD 90
- A received Syrian text from AD 120 to AD 200
- A received Latin text from AD 150 to AD 1500
- A received German text from AD 1500 to AD 2006
- A received English text from AD 1611 to AD 2006 (2012+)

Dr Mrs Riplinger has this incisive observation from In Awe of Thy Word p 544, her emphases, in agreement with the priesthood of all believers, 1 Peter 2:5, 9. “The Bible appears in many forms – such as Hebrew, Hungarian, English and Polish. The “form” of the Word seemed different at various times, yet it was still Jesus (e.g. the “fiery furnace” (Dan. 3:35), the “babe wrapped in swaddling clothes” (Luke 2:12), when “She supposing him to be the gardener” (John 20:15), and when “his eyes were as a flame of fire” (Rev. 1:14). When the Word “appeared in another form,” as Jesus did, “neither believed they them” (Mark 16:12, 13). Likewise, some still dig for words in haunted Greek graveyards.”

A Seven-Stage Purification Process – Pre-English and English Bibles

Dr Mrs Riplinger [In Awe of Thy Word, p 33] documents the development of the seven purifications of the English Bible from its earliest inception, in fulfilment of Psalm 12:6, 7:

- The Gothic
- The Anglo-Saxon
- The Pre-Wycliffe
- The Wycliffe
- The Tyndale/Coverdale/Great/Geneva*
- The Bishops’
- The King James Bible

*The progression of the 16th century English Bibles to the King James Bible exhibits a further embedded seven purifications. See One Book Stands Alone by Dr Douglas Stauffer pp 282-284.

- The Tyndale 1525
- The Coverdale 1535
- The Matthew 1537
- The Great 1538
- The Geneva 1560
- The Bishops' 1568
- The King James Bible 1611

Dr Mrs Riplinger states, [In Awe of Thy Word, pp 539, 560ff] her emphases ““Seven” times “they purge...and purify it...” (Ezek. 43:26) – not eight. The KJV translators did not see their translation as one in the midst of a chain of ever evolving translations. They wanted their Bible to be one of which no one could justly say, ‘It is good, except this word or that word...’ They planned The Translators to the Reader, [www.jesus-is-lord.com/pref1611.htm]: ““...to make...out of many good ones [Wycliffe, Tyndale, Coverdale, Great, Geneva, Bishops’], one principal good one, not justly to be excepted against; that hath been our endeavor, that our mark...the same will shine as gold more brightly, being rubbed and polished...”” In a sense God did inspire the King’s men to achieve their mark 2 Peter 1:21 as John Selden notes in Table Talk. ““The translation in King James’ time took an excellent way. That part of the Bible was given to him who was most excellent in such a tongue and then they met together, and one read the translation, the rest holding in their hands some Bible, either of the learned tongues [Greek, Hebrew, Latin], or French, Italian, Spanish &c [and other languages]. If they found any fault, they spoke; if not, he read on.””

A Seven-Stage Purification Process – King James Bibles

God has refined the 1611 Holy Bible through seven major editions. See In Awe of Thy Word p 600 and The Hidden History of the English Scriptures pp 49-51 by Dr Mrs Riplinger. “The only changes to the KJV since 1611 are of three types:

1. 1612: Typography (from Gothic to Roman type)
2. 1629 & 1638: Correction of typographical errors
3. 1762 & 1769: Standardization of spelling.” Therefore, fulfilling Psalm 12:6, 7:

Two 1611 editions = seven stages. “For with God nothing shall be impossible” Luke 1:37.

Particular Purification Steps

Addition of Words

Scrivener notes in The Authorized Edition of the English Bible (1611) Its Subsequent Reprints and Modern Representatives, Appendices A, C, textual changes to early editions e.g. the words “of God” first being added to 1 John 5:12 in 1638. God oversees such changes. “Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words” Jeremiah 36:32.

Elimination and Alteration of Words

The NIV adds “of Jesus” in Acts 16:7. The Geneva Bible has “Passover” instead of “Easter” in Acts 12:4. God corrects such imperfections as illustrated by John 15:2 with respect to “the true vine” John 15:1, which is “the Word of life” 1 John 1:1, like “the word of life,” purging being a form of purifying. “Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.”

Restoration of Words

Current editions of Wycliffe’s Bible omit some scriptures e.g. the end of Matthew 6:13. God restores such omissions as illustrated by Romans 11:20, 23, AV1611. “Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:...And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graff them in again.”

Conclusion

These purifications ensure that the AV1611 is “the words of the LORD...pure words” Psalm 12:6.

“The words of the LORD...purified seven times” Psalm 12:6
An Oil Refining Analogy Against AV1611 Critics

Oil Refinery Plant

AV1611 Critics

AV1611 critics deny perfection for the AV1611 by allusion to the different AV1611 Editions e.g. “The King James Bible has gone through seven different editions...Which one can you say is “perfect”?”<sup>1</sup> Those critics don’t understand stage-wise processes. See this analogy:

Oil Refining – A Stage-wise Process

Oil refining<sup>2</sup> is well-known. Its main product is premium grade petrol. Oil refining is complex<sup>3</sup> but can be summarised in three basic stage-wise steps. See Figure:

Key:

Stage 1: Crude oil separation into the crude petrol product and by-products

Stage 2: Petrol product chemical upgrading and further separation

Stage 3: Final separation, additives blended to yield premium petrol product

Note: At each stage, the intermediate petrol products are perfect for the next stage according to product specifications until the final, perfect premium product is achieved.

Scripture Purification – Seven-fold Stage-wise Processes

The same principles apply to the stage-wise purifications of the Lord's words, with respect to old languages, the English language and the AV1611. Each purification is seven-fold:

“The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times” Psalm 12:6, which itself uses an industrial analogy i.e. silver refining.

Old Languages and the English Language

Drs Vance and Riplinger<sup>4</sup> have shown the seven-fold stage-wise purification of scripture:

From Old Languages:

- A received Hebrew text, 1800 BC to 389 BC
- A received Aramaic text at the same time (Genesis, Daniel, etc.)
- A received Greek text from AD 40 to AD 90
- A received Syrian text from AD 120 to AD 200
- A received Latin text from AD 150 to AD 1500
- A received German text from AD 1500 to AD 2006
- A received English text from AD 1611 to AD 2006 (2012+)

Note that the purification process, though with seven stages, was not strictly sequential. Dr Riplinger notes that Herman Hoskier identified 2nd century Greek-Latin-Syriac New Testaments in parallel<sup>5</sup>. Moreover, Dr Riplinger, her emphases, has stated directly to this writer that “In Foxe’s Book of Martyrs, vol. 4, pp 671-675, Foxe quotes an old “treatise”... “Also the four evangelists wrote the gospel in divers languages, as Matthew in Judea, Mark in Italy, Luke in Achaia, and John in Asia. And all these wrote in the languages of the same countries...”” That is, parts of the New Testament were first written in different languages and existed in parallel to facilitate to the utmost “obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name...Jesus Christ” Romans 1:5-6.

Through to the English Language:

Purification of the English scriptures was also in seven stages and more directly sequential.

- The Gothic
- The Anglo-Saxon
- The Pre-Wycliffe
- The Wycliffe
- The Tyndale/Coverdale/Great/Geneva
- The Bishops’
- The King James Bible

In these purifications of scripture, as with oil refining, each intermediate was perfect for the next stage with no loss of inspiration. “The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul” Psalm 19:7. Only life begets life. The AV1611 does that best.

The AV1611 – Seven-fold Stage-wise Purification

This writer believes that God then purified the AV1611 through seven major editions<sup>6</sup>. Again, each intermediate product was perfect for the next stage through to full perfection.

1. 1612: Typography (from Gothic to Roman type)
2. 1629 & 1638: Correction of typographical errors
3. 1762 & 1769: Standardization of spelling. Therefore, fulfilling Psalm 12:6, two 1611 Editions = seven stages in total. The critics notwithstanding therefore:

“Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it” Psalm 119:140.
